Duration

3 – 6 hours

Format

- E-learning course
- Practical advocacy workshop
- Follow up telephone hearing

Delegates

Civil litigators with limited experience of interim applications advocacy

Maximum of 10 per course

Outcomes

As a result of attending the course, you will:

- make more interim applications
- prepare for them quickly
- deliver them confidently and successfully

Content

E-learning – 30 minutes

This course covers the practical aspects of issuing and preparing for an interim application, including time limits and costs.

Advocacy workshop – 3 hours

- Analysing the case papers
- Checking the CPR requirements
- Preparing helpful speaking notes
- Telling the story with headlines
- Explaining the law
- Handling weak points
- Persuasion and asking for what you want

Telephone hearing – 1 hour & preparation time

Delegates conduct two telephone hearings with another delegate as their opposition. The hearing is based on a case study sent to delegates in advance. The judge is a tutor who provides individual feedback following the hearings.
