

Drafting Interim Applications

Synopsis

The course provides guidance and tips for drafting interim applications.

The course is ideal to help junior lawyers develop their skills when applying for a court order. It covers preparing a draft order and completing Form N244.

At the end of the course you can download a PDF with a checklist.

Junior fee earners and claims handlers

20 minutes

Outcomes

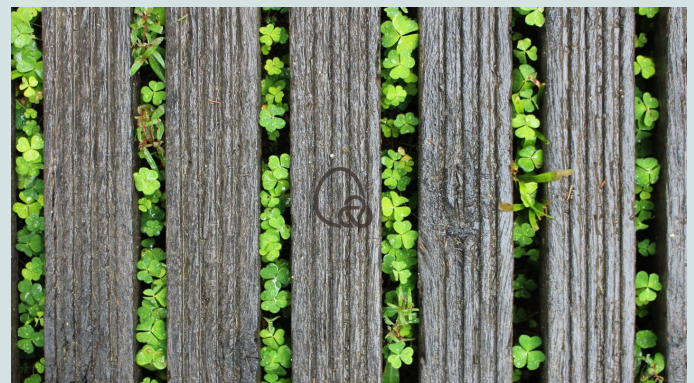

As a result of completing the training, you will know:

- Know what an interim application is
- Be able to prepare a application notice
- Be able to prepare a draft order
- Know which documents should be lodged with the court when making an interim application
- Know where to find the Civil Procedure Rules governing interim applications

Content

Our course covers:

- What is an interim application?
- What to do before making an interim application?
- Issuing an application
- Preparing a draft order
- Completing Form N244

BUY