

E-learning: Supervising legal apprentices

Synopsis

Supervising legal apprentices is different to supervising trainee solicitors. Most of them are fresh out of school with limited office experience so it can be a steep learning curve for both the supervisor and the apprentice!

This e-learning course will give you tips and techniques to make sure you nurture the youngest talent in your firm.

Duration

30 minutes

Format

E-learning

Delegates

Lawyers and other people in your organisation who are responsible for supervising legal apprentices.

Outcomes

After completing the course, your apprentice supervisors will:

- Understand how legal apprenticeships work
- Be better at delegation and feedback
- Be more aware of generational differences
- Ensure that apprentices are given the best learning opportunities within your firm

Content

- What are legal apprenticeships?
- Managing expectations: office etiquette, dress, time-keeping, use of phones
- Delegation
- Managing different generations
- Handling tricky situations, such as inappropriate behaviours and stress