

Reviewing an Expert Report

Synopsis

This e-learning course provides tips and guidance for reviewing an expert medical report in a personal injury claim.

Trainee solicitors, junior lawyers, paralegals, litigation assistants, claims handlers, medico-legal agency case handlers

20 minutes

Outcomes

As a result of completing this course you will:

- know how to analyse a medical report
- be able to identify evidence supporting general damages
- be able to identify evidence supporting special damages
- understand the difference between condition and prognosis
- understand the impact of any relevant pre-existing injuries

Content

This course covers:

- The structure of an expert report and compliance with the Civil Procedure Rules
- Analysing the report and medical terminology
- Attributes of the claimant
- Pain & suffering
- Condition and prognosis
- Loss of amenity
- Special damages
- Top tips for reviewing any expert report

BUY