

Personal Impact Coaching & Mentoring

Synopsis

These one-to-one sessions offer bespoke intensive support for professionals who want to improve their leadership presence. Also suitable for the next generation of talent who are transitioning to leadership roles, delivering keynote speeches, or appearing in the media.

Lawyers and other professionals

Whatever suits your requirements

Outcomes

You will emerge as a confident, relaxed and convincing communicator who commands the floor and works the room with ease in planned situations and in “off-the-cuff” interactions. You will learn how to react quickly and how to motivate your team and your clients through clear and compelling messages delivered with authority.

Content

Coaching

Sessions usually start with by agreeing priorities and then a detailed assessment of your current level. Further content is then agreed to meet your aims.

Mentoring

After coaching sessions, our mentoring service provides longer term support by email and phone to reassure and address any questions that arise as you develop your skills.

Get in touch